

2 Corinthians 5:7: "For we walk by faith, not by sight."

This breakdown provides a comprehensive look at the verse, focusing on understanding, practical application, and spiritual growth.

Section 1: Understanding the Concept of Faith

1. What does it mean to "walk by faith" in the context of your daily life?
2. How does faith differ from sight in the way we make decisions or view challenges?
3. Can you think of biblical examples where individuals walked by faith instead of relying on what they could see?
4. Why is faith necessary for a believer's relationship with God? (Consider Hebrews 11:6).
5. How does trusting in God's unseen promises strengthen your spiritual journey?

Section 2: Applying Faith Over Sight

1. What areas of your life challenge your ability to trust in God instead of what you can see?
2. How can prayer and scripture study help you overcome doubts about unseen realities?
3. Have you experienced a situation where walking by faith led to unexpected blessings? Share the experience.
4. How do you balance planning with trusting in God's unseen guidance?
5. What practical steps can you take to live out "faith over sight" in your relationships, career, or daily decisions?

Section 3: Strengthening Your Faith Journey

1. What spiritual disciplines can help you grow in your faith and dependence on God?
2. How does understanding God's eternal promises give you confidence to trust Him?
3. In moments of doubt, what scriptures or prayers help you refocus on walking by faith?
4. How does faith in unseen things prepare us for the eternal life Paul talks about in 2 Corinthians 5?
5. What role does community (church, small groups, or spiritual friendships) play in encouraging you to live by faith?
